Re: Certificate of Entry in the National Register of Historic Places
Shook-Welch-Smathers House, Clyde, Haywood County
Listed: September 12, 2008

Dear Dr. Hall:

I am pleased to inform you that the above-referenced property has been entered in the National Register of Historic Places. An official certificate of listing is enclosed. Also enclosed for your information is a copy of the nomination. You are most fortunate to own and preserve a property that justly deserves this honor.

The National Register has been called "a roll call of the tangible reminders of the history of the United States." It is, therefore, a pleasure for the Office of Archives and History to participate in this program and thereby make our nation aware of North Carolina's rich cultural heritage.

In order that we may keep our records up to date, it would be very helpful if you would notify us of any changes in ownership or of any major alteration of the property, including moving, destruction, remodeling, or restoration. We appreciate your cooperation in preserving the best of our past for posterity.

Sincerely,

Jeffrey J. Crow
State Historic Preservation Officer

This is to certify that

SHOOK-WELCH-SMATHERS House
Clyde
Haywood County

has been entered in

THE NATIONAL REGISTER OF HISTORIC PLACES

by the

United States Department of the Interior

upon nomination by the State Historic Preservation Officer under provisions of the National Historic Preservation Act of 1966 (P.L. 89-665).

The National Register is a list of properties "significant in American history, architecture, archaeology, and culture – a comprehensive index of the significant physical evidences of our national patrimony." Properties listed therein deserve to be preserved by their owners as a part of the cultural heritage of our nation.
